Voters Approve Mokena Fire District 410 to 35

Establishment of the Mokena fire protection district is official now.

Last Saturday residents of the district cast 410 votes in favor of organizing it while only 35 persons were opposed to this means of providing Mokena and adjacent territory with the services of a fire department supported by tax money.

On Monday of this week the vote was canvassed in the Will county court and Judge John C. Cowing declared the district formed.

Later this week he is expected to appoint three trustees to administer the affairs of the district. The board of directors of the Mokena fire department has selected three persons it would recommend for appointment. The court is not bound to follow such recommendations but it usually does.

A fire protection district can levy taxes and with the growth of the area the fire department is in need of more equipment and also needs a steady income on which it can depend. In all the years the Mokena department has served the area it has had to depend upon the generosity of the public in the purchase of tickets to dances and car parties or in buying food or bake goods at concessions operated by firemen at homecomings and community gatherings.

The district is bounded on the north by 167th street, on the east by U. S. 45 and for a distance a line thru the middle of Sec. 3 east of U.S. 45; on the south by Hickory creek or the northline of the Frankfort fire district and on the west by New Lenox and Homer fire districts.

There were three polling places and the vote cast in each was as follows:

Village hall, Mokena, for all residents within the corporate limits:

Yes 227, No, 19.

Mancke's garage, 189th and Wolf road, for all other residents of Frankfort township within the district:

Yes, 147; No, 10.

Maue school, Orland township, for residents of those portions of Homer and Orland township lying within the Mokena district:

Yes, 36; No, 6.

There were six spoiled ballots.

The Mokena fire department is popular with the public, it having never refused to answer a call.

Orland Park will have a referendum on a fire protection district Aug. 18.

Condition Of Torture-Bandit Victims Show Improvement

The condition of the Mokena torture victims, 90-year-old George Klose and his 80-year-old sister, Emma, beaten and robbed in their home at 187th and U.S. 45 early last Thursday morning, is reported as somewhat improved. Both are in St. James hospital, Chicago Heights.

Sheriff's deputies are seeking a suspect but he is not now in the locality, it was said. The lone bandit who invaded the Klose home around 2 o'clock in the morning was without a car and appeared to be familiar with the surroundings and the fact that while there was a dozen dogs about the place they were not vicious.

He demanded the two hand over the money from the sale of the farm. Since the farm was sold 10 years ago and the proceeds invested there was no cash of consequence on the premises. Brother and sister said there was no money at hand but after Miss Klose had been beaten and her brother was knocked down -- his jaw fractured -- the brutal bandit bound their arms and legs and tied them to chairs. Then he went to work on the aged man, twisting and bending his fingers backward until the pain prompted the victim to disclose there was some money in a small and ancient safe in an upstairs room.

The intruder threw the safe downstairs and getting the key for the inner door he opened it and took the money it contained -- $400.

He then took the keys for the car driven occasionally by Miss Klose and left. The bandit encountered trouble in backing the car out of the yard, however, and ran into a hole. The rear wheels buried themselves and unable to move the car any further the robber fled on foot.

Miss Klose struggled with her bonds until almost 6 o'clock when she finally succeeded in freeing herself. She then released her brother and went for help. The bandit had broken the telephone wires before he left so Miss Klose walked a quarter of a mile to the Paul Smith home. The Smiths are on the same party line as the Klose family so breaking the service in the one house left the phone useless in the other, it was explained by phone officials.

Smith then drove to the junction of U.S. 45 and 30 at Frankfort and called the sheriff's office, a doctor and an ambulance.

The brother and sister were taken to the hospital, both in serious condition.

The bandit attempted to get in the house around 10 o'clock Wednesday night. He came to the door and asked to be allowed to come in out of the rain but Miss Klose refused to admit him.

She and her brother were awakened sometime around 2 o'clock -- altho it might have been later -- to find the man in the room. Investigators said later that he had forced a door.

He was carrying a bulb type syringe in which he had some amonia which he squirted at Miss Klose's face.

Miss Klose knocked the syringe out of his hand and he struck her in the face with his fist. The intruder then attacked Mr. Klose, fracturing his jaw.

The bandit was described as short -- about five feet, three inches, and while he wore a long white coat that concealed his figure he was believed to be of stocky build. He appeared to be in his 20's and had a round face.

John Shelley, investigator for the sheriff's office believes the bandit is from the area and he is looking for a man, now missing, whose description tallies with that of the intruder.

Photographs of the two victims were not permitted at the hospital.

SCENE OF BRUTAL ATTACK ON George and Emma Klose, brother and sister. When they sold the farm 10 years ago they retained use of the home and adjacent buildings. The house is large and because the growth about it is so thick it is not readily noticed from U.S. 45. (Semmler Press Photo)

Speeds, Hits Tree, Fined

Donald R. Park, 22, of 1019 N. Cedar rd., New Lenox, and Ronald Robinette, 18, of 1023 Sterling ave., Joliet, were arrested by Joliet city and park police after a chase last Saturday night.

According to police reports the car in which the two men were riding was traveling 60 miles an hour along Gougar road and held it along the road leading to the flowing well in Pilcher park. The car continued to travel at excessive speed, the report states, until it finally failed to take a twist in the road and hit a tree.

The two men jumped out and fled thru the woods but were apprehended by the pursuing officers and taken to the city jail in Joliet and locked up. They were released on bond Sunday and appeared in police court Monday. Day was fined

Frankfort Ready To Start Street Repairs Thru MFT

Formalities necessary to proceed with the work of repairing streets under the state motor fuel tax system were disposed of Monday night by the Frankfort village board.

The necessary resolutions were adopted and forwarded to the state department of highways after contracts had been awarded.

Wunder Construction Co. of Plainfield is to apply the material. The stone will be purchased from the Thornton plant of Material Service. Both were the low bidders.

The village will rent equipment and get the streets graded and prepared thru its own working force. Streets to be repaired are Oak, Pacific, Locust, Maple and a portion of Center, Kansas street is to be surfaced from White to Ash. Plans are also in the making for surfacing Smith and Bowen.

Wunder's contract calls for $2,012; Material Service $555 and Smith and Bowen $1,400. The village board had asked the state to resurface White and Nebraska streets but the district engineer's office wrote back and said they could only be repaired this year but hoped to include them in next year's rebuilding program.

The village is cutting weeds in various locations where owners have ignored instructions to have them mowed and such owners will be billed for the work.

New Lenox Man Injured Car Crash May 21, Dies

Funeral services for Herbert Franey, 54, of 145 W. Wood st., New Lenox, who died last Thursday night, July 12, at Silver Cross hospital, were conducted Sunday afternoon, July 15, from the Baskerville chapel, Roberts road and Lincoln highway.

Mr. Franey had been in the hospital since he was taken there May 21, following an automobile accident on U. S. 6 near Cedar road.

He had been under treatment for head injuries suffered in the crash and was also being treated for other ailments, according to Coroner Willard G. Blood. The inquest will be held later.

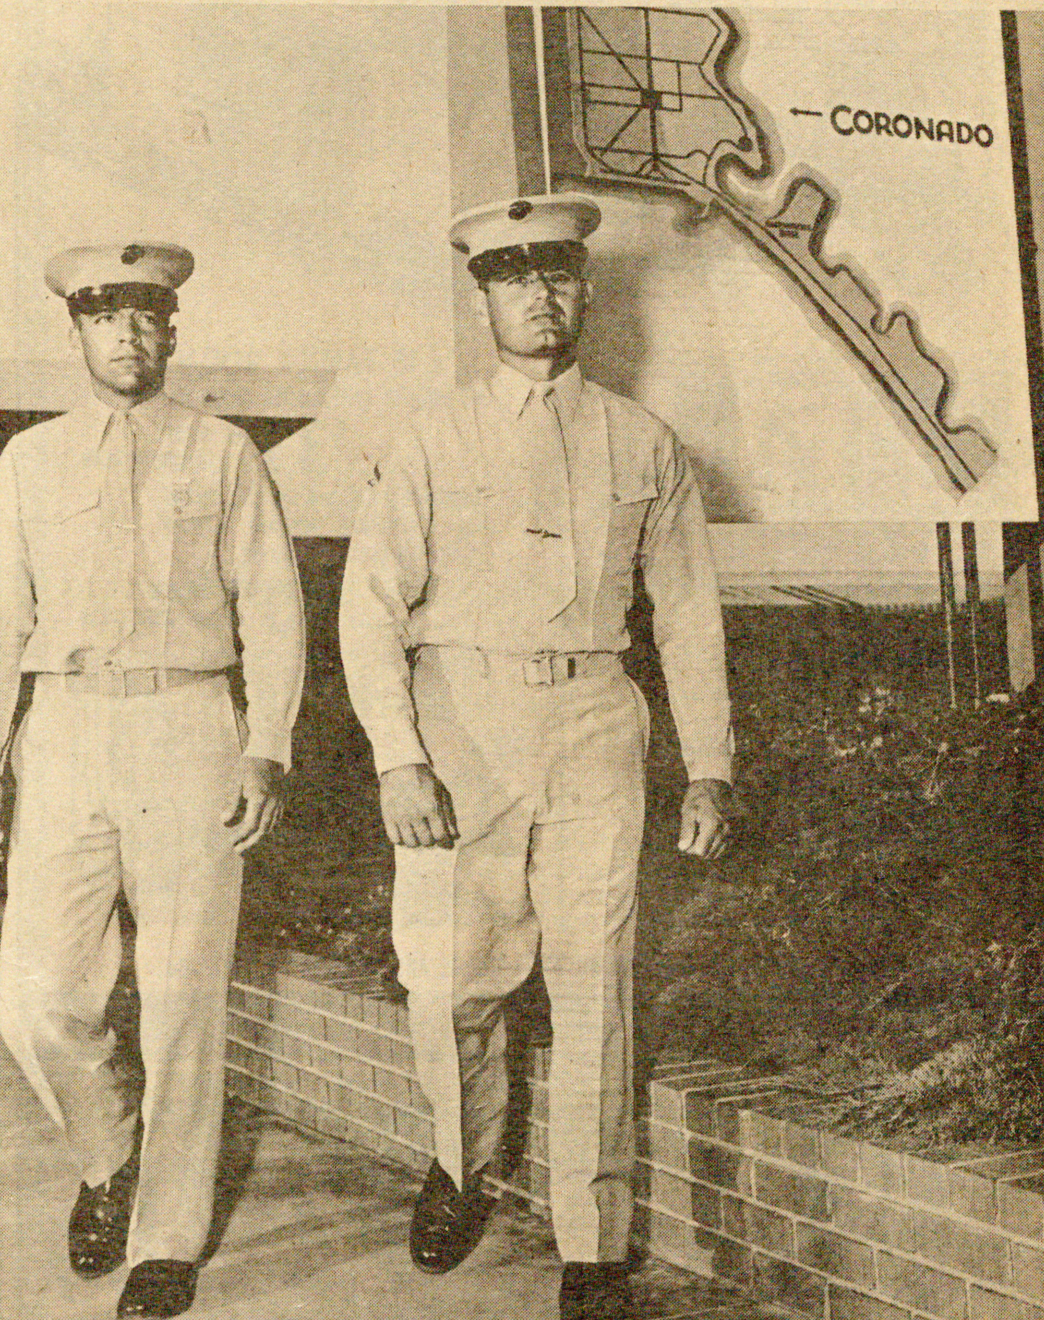

Mr. Franey was employed at the Electromotive plant, La Grange, as a welder and was enroute home when the accident occurred. State police reports say that he apparently applied his brakes as he neared Cedar road and his car skidded into the east bound lane and struck a car. Mr. Franey was traveling west.

A native of Crothersville, Ind., Mr. Franey served in the U.S. Navy in World War II, as a member of a PT boat crew in the South Pacific.

Besides his widow, the former Mabel Gridley, Mr. Franey is survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Taft, of Clearwater, Fla.

The Rev. Gordon Rice officiated at the funeral services and burial was in Maplewood cemetery.

Approves $18,000 Street Repair Program at N. L.

Discussion of street repairs and maintenance took up most of the time of the New Lenox village board when it met on Wednesday night of last week. The regular meeting date is the first Wednesday of each month but because the Fourth of July fell on the first Wednesday this year the meeting was put over a week.

Trygg Paving Co. of Joliet has the contract for the street program covered by motor fuel tax funds. Approximately 39,000 feet of such streets are to be rehabilitated under this program at a cost of about $14,000. The trustees voted to extend this work as the unit prices quoted by Trygg to cover an additional 16,000 feet of streets at a cost not to exceed $4,200. This amount will come from other funds available to the village, it was explained. Work was scheduled to begin this week.

The board talked some of getting additional revenue for street work by levying a motor vehicle tax but put off further discussion until next month. The board voted Joliet road and Elm streets as the latest additions to the arterial street pattern under the motor fuel tax. A limited amount of foot-ing can be added each year, it was explained.

An ordinance annexing the Ingram property at the north-east corner of Cooper and Wood street to the village was adopted. It is expected that the board will receive numerous requests for small annexations as residents outside the corporate limits seek connection with the sewers.

Trustees Evans Drotts and Eugene Hunt were delegated to attend the next meeting of the village zoning board of ap-peals and discuss the possi-bility of adopting a policy which would liberalize the terms of the ordinance applying to clear-ances and set-backs as far as the older sections of the village are concerned.

Many of the building lots in the older subdivisions cannot be developed according to present zoning rules, it was said, altho in most communities this prob-lem is recognized and the old lots are exempt from the new regulations. The village board believes that a more liberal policy in this field will mate-rially reduce the load of re-quests for variations from the zoning law.

Village Attorney William Penn was instructed to draw an ordinance to license peddlers and house to house solicitors operating within the village. The suggested fee for such a license was $5.

Money held in the various sewer accounts is to be in-vested that it may draw interest while lying idle. Trustee Drotts and Village Treasurer James Hearn, Jr. were authorized to make such arrangements.

Would Build College At Park Forest

A group in Park Forest has announced plans for a four-year liberal arts college to be erected in Monee township to serve south Cook and eastern Will counties.

Whether the plan will progress depends upon the support of the people in the area, according to John Malone, of Park Forest, one of the five incor-porators of the Provisional Park Forest College Corpora-tion.

"If there is enough public response and enough parents assure us they will send their children to the college, we can get funds to build it and the land to put it on."

It was estimated that $10-million dollars would be needed. Philip Klutznick, one of the developers of Park Forest was quoted as saying he would donate a 50-acre tract for the campus. The incorporators plan on raising a million dollars from Park Forest residents; a like amount from other suburban residents; $2-million from indus-try in the south suburban area and $2-million in prepaid tu-itions thru the sale of tuition bonds of $1,000 each.

The school would operate on a six-day week and an 11-month year. Professors would be paid on a scale ranging from $10,000 to $35,000 a year. There would be no athletic program and no room on the campus to park autos.

The incorporators other than Malone, who is a consulting economist, are Spencer Floyd, an insurance research director; Quentin Woods, an attorney and Park Forest trustee; Charles Lawrence, a copywriter and former teacher at the Univer-sity of Michigan, and Jack Corn-elius, a utility official.

Farm Safety Week Set By President

President John F. Kennedy has proclaimed July 22-28 as Farm Safety week. He has called upon all people of the nation to observe the week and its theme, "Family Safety at Work and Play." Carl M. Bor-met, chairman of the Cook coun-ty ASC committee said his agen-cy wholeheartedly endorses this effort to reduce the number of farm, farm home and rural highway accidents.

Special emphasis is being placed on safety at home and around the farm buildings. Be a good housekeeper. Keep items where they belong. Repair damaged and broken ladders, railings, fences, steps, machin-ery, etc., when you first no-tice the need. It takes no long-er then and may prevent a ser-ious accident later.

Chemicals are becoming nec-essities around farms and in homes. This does not make them less dangerous or poison-ous. Always read the label and use the chemical exactly as directed. Store them in their original container, the one with the label and directions on it. If there are young children around the home be sure these dangerous chemicals are kept in locked cabinets.

Keep store rooms well light-ed and orderly. Dark dingy corners harbor biting spiders and sharp spikes of blade edges. Have good lights over all work benches. Be most careful when storing combustibles such as paint thinner or gasoline. Be most particular where oily rags and waste are stored or dis-carded.

Mr. Bor-met asks you to take the President's proclamation to heart. He urges that you pro-tect your family from falls, fire, poisons, chemicals, home accidents of all kinds which a few moments of your time may prevent.

Industrial Developers Offer Mokena Well Site

The Pomar Land Trust, which owns land east of Mokena along 191st street that is zoned for industry, is prepared to dedicate a parcel of land 90 by 180 feet to the village for well site and water tower, according to a letter which was given to the board at its meeting last week by Ralph Yunker, village engineer.

The board went on record as willing to accept the property but with no stipulations as to its future use. The board also in-structed the village attorney to proceed with annexation to attach this parcel to the village. The remainder of the tract would not be annexed at this time.

The board also adopted a resolution endorsing the work of the village planning commission in its endeavors to develop the industrial potential of the area. Objectors to a possible classi-fication of the Rene Guimdon property on Wolf road that ex-tends back to Anna street were advised that if and when zoning board had a hearing on such a petition they could come in then and present objections.

The Mokena fire department pumper passed tests made by the Illinois Inspection and Rating Bureau and the fire insurance rating of 8th class is justified, according to a letter read by Mayor Charles Swanberg.

The village attorney was in-structed to proceed against three persons listed whose prop-erties are not connected with the sewer system, Henry Opitz, Carl Rhein and Mrs. Edith Wal-schlaeger. Meanwhile they are to be billed for sewer service. The attorney pointed out that under the ordinance any person within 100 feet of the sewer and has no connection to it can be billed for service.

Relative to the deterioration of the primary tank in the se-wage treatment plant the attor-ney read a letter from Lindblad Construction Co., the builders, stating that they had complied with the plans and specifications and any repairs needed are a village problem.

Hints For Homeowners

BY JAMES FIZZELL, ASS'T. FARM ADVISER If your garden needs watering, it's better to give it a good soaking than just a light sprink-ling. A good soaking means soaking the ground down to a depth of six inches or more. Then do not water again until the soil has dried out fairly well.

Light sprinklings just moist-en the surface of the soil. This causes the roots of the plants to be shallow and does the plant more harm than good, espe-cially on extremely hot days. Furthermore, if you water when the foliage doesn't have a chance to dry off before night, you just invite mildew and other leaf diseases. As a general rule, flowers need about one inch of moisture per week for best per-formance. It's wise to depend as much as possible on rainfall. But during prolonged dry spells it is often necessary to apply water.

If you water with a sprinkler, it is best to do it early in the morning or during the sunny hours, being sure the foliage is dry before nightfall. If you use a soak-hose, you can safely water in the evening, since the leaves don't get wet.

To reduce the need for supplemental watering, use a mulch around the flowers. Not only does a mulch help to con-serve moisture in the soil, but it helps to hold down weeds, keeps the soil cooler and pre-vents heavy rains from packing the soil surface. Organic mul-ches like peat, well-rotted manure, compost or ground corn cobs also add organic mat-ter to the soil. Some types of mulches make it necessary to use slightly more fertilizer than usual to compensate for the ni-trogen used up as the mulch de-composes.

Your trees and shrubs too benefit from a good soaking if a week of hot weather occurs without rain. This is best done by setting the hose at the base of the plant and letting it trickle slowly for several hours. A root soaker which applies the water directly into the soil is useful because it prevents run-off of the water.

Lawn watering often gets the average homeowner in trouble with shallow rooting of the sod, and with disease problems. Frequent light waterings, par-ticularly if done late in the day, provides ideal conditions for some of our most troublesome lawn diseases. To avoid these difficulties, water only when rain has not fallen for several days but water thoroughly. At least one inch of water should be applied to the surface of the lawn at each watering. It takes a long time for the common lawn sprinkler to do this. To make sure you are getting enough water on, set an empty coffee can where it will catch water as the lawn is sprinkled. When there is one inch of water in the can, the sprinkler can be moved.

WILLIAM F. WHITESIDE COOK COUNTY FARM ADVISER

TINLEY PARK - KE 2-4369 JUST WHAT IS THE COMMON MARKET?

The Common Market is the popular name for an organiza-tion of six leading nations of Europe. These nations are: West Germany, France, Italy, The Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg. The OFFICIAL name for this organization is the European Economic Com-munity, often abbreviated EEC.

The nature and purpose of this organization are indicated in its popular name, the Common Market. As used here, the word COMMON means belonging to more than one, or shared by many. The member nations have joined together to form one big market. Tariffs and other trade restrictions are being gradually eliminated so that farmers and manufacturers in any one of the nations can sell their products freely in all of the other nations of the group.

Workers are also free to go from one member country to any other to obtain employment. We might say that, like farmers and manufacturers, workers and so develop the habit of in-dependence. At a previous board session, Mrs. Janet McGivern was hired to teach the fifth grade for the coming school year.

are now free to sell their labor in any part of the six nations that make up the European Economic Community.

WHAT IS THE REASON THESE SIX NATIONS OF EUR-OPE JOINED TOGETHER? ISN'T THIS A RATHER DRAS-TIC CHANGE FROM CONDI-TIONS THAT PREVAILED A FEW YEARS AGO?

Yes, it is a big change from the past. Formerly each of these countries was to a large extent a separate market. Each one maintained tariffs and other strong restrictions upon most products moving into it from other nations.

Each nation was only a re-latively small market. There-fore, most factories were small. Because of the small volume of production and lack of strong competition, costs and prices were high in relation to wages. Low wages and high prices kept the standard of living down.

More important, perhaps, these countries often quarreled among themselves. Their dis-putes sometimes led to war, with great loss of life and prop-erty. They were all involved in World War I and World War II. All six of the nations that now make up the Common Mar-ket were defeated and occupied during World War II. Their people suffered many hard-ships, including famine and starvation.

The voluntary joining to-gether of these former bitter enemies into an economic union is one of the great historical events of our times.

South Cook County 4-H mem-bers will exhibit their projects at a 4-H Fair which will be held August 4th, at the Fred A. Francis 4-H Field, New Lenox, Ill. These displays will re-present project work carried on by the members throughout the year.

Visitors are welcome at the fairgrounds during the day, from 9:00 A.M. to 8:00 P.M.

On Second Thought

By GLENN F. LOGAN

Back from a vacation trip but nothing to report--which shows that this reporter had a very lazy time.

If one stops to talk to people, to get their views on foreign and domestic affairs...what they think of President Kennedy...what they think of the Kennedy family...of Marilyn Monroe...of television...what they think of Liz and Eddie...of taxes...of congress...of foreign aid...of politics...of Russia...of the movies et cetera, et cetera, it means that he must stop off here a day, there a day or a week and it is no longer a vacation but a job.

The only stops your correspondent made to and from his destination were at gas stations and restaurants.

One generally gets a haircut before beginning such a jaunt and since your correspondent doesn't drink when he drives two sources of information--barbershops and saloons--are automatically cut off.

Heard a couple of people discussing fallout shelters at a gas station.

"Won't be anything left anyway if they start dropping those nuclear bombs," one remarked, "so there wouldn't be much use in trying to doge them."

"That's right," his companion agreed, "but I thought maybe I would fix one up--dig a hole out in the yard and cover it with concrete and dirt. It would be a handy thing to have in case of a tornado. I don't know if we will ever get those bombs but we sure are getting a lot of tornados."

There was a gas war in full bloom in Southern Illinois with regular selling at 20 cents and ethyl four cents over. But down in Missouri the war had ended and it was 30-cents.

In Missouri and Kansas the sight of Illinois plates prompted some gas station attendants to ask questions. Was I from near Chicago?

When I said yes they shook their heads:

"Those White Sox don't amount to much," they remarked commiseratingly. "And those Cubs--they sure are a mess. Wrigley ought to trade some of his gum for some new players, or maybe he could trade off some of his coaches."

At another place, in answer to the question of whether I was from the Chicago area I said no, I was from Cairo but apparently all of Illinois must share the blame for the showing of the two Chicago baseball clubs. In Kansas and Missouri the Cubs and Sox were messes.

Your correspondent must admit that expressways much superior to old style roads, especially with the number of trucks, house trailers and boats (on trailers, of course) one encounters on the highway today.

Trying to pass a couple of cars towing boats, a couple of cars towing house trailers and two or three trucks all in line on a two-way road is practically impossible. One must have a dual lane to be successful in such an undertaking.

Someone told me that Missouri, like Illinois has a law limiting trucks to 55 miles an hour but the roads I traveled did not have such a speed posted. The signs there simply stated that the speed limit was 70 m.p.h.

I asked a truck driver, who also was having a cup of coffee, how fast he drove.

"Fifty-five," was his virtuous answer, "just like the sign says."

I left before he did so I have no idea how fast he drove but if most of the trucks I encountered were driving 55 miles an hour it was a fast 55. I was traveling 70 and those big semis were passing me easily and going away.

Once I thought I'd see for myself how fast a truck travels at 55 miles and hour so I rolled up and passed one. I had to do better than 80 to get by.

I mentioned this to another truck driver further down the line.

"Your speedometer must be off," he said, "we only drive 55."

Buses never go faster than 60, their drivers say, and it has been this reporter's observation that when testifying at inquests bus drivers only travel 35 miles an hour--oh maybe they will hit 40--when there is an accident in which they are involved.

As to what people are talking about in other areas--well, just about what they are talking about here--they complain about the weather, TV re-runs, prices

Free Pizza Will Feature Next Meeting Of Teens

MRS. EDWARD HOVI
MOKENA 5740

The Teens club held their semi-monthly meeting and social on Monday evening, July 9 at the Summit Hill school. It was decided at that time that there would be a pizza party at the next meeting (July 23). There will be no charge for the pizza at this party. The affairs begin at 7:30.

The Teens club is open to all teenagers from the age of thirteen to eighteen in the Summit Hill school district. There is usually a short meeting followed by dancing at each get-together.

There is also a need for chaperones required by the school board for each meeting, a minimum of three. If you would be willing to act as chaperone for a future meeting, please contact either Al Behnke at Mokena 5412 or Don Waters at Mokena 5031.

The Arbury Hills Baby Sitters Cooperative held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Ed Blecha of 9425 West Pine ave. The secretary's book was turned over to Mrs. Blecha by Mrs. Tanis who had been secretary for the previous month. Mrs. Blecha will act as secretary for the coming month, and any member who wishes to have a baby sitter, can obtain one by contacting Mrs. Blecha at Mokena 5607.

Al Behnke, of 19531 South Beechnut Drive, who recently suffered a heart attack, is recuperating nicely, and has now returned to his job.

Mrs. Donald Munday of 9431 West Pine Ave. gave a general bridal shower for her sister Miss La Verne Swirzinski, who will be married to Wayne Kempf on August 11 in Oak Park. Those present at the bridal shower included friends and relatives of the future bride.

Mrs. Munday will act as matron of honor while her husband, Donald, will act as usher, and her daughter, Laura will be a flower girl.

Marilyn Monroe must have lost what she had because I noticed that while some still mentioned her they no longer rolled their eyes and whistled.

Enjoy July 4th Annual Picnic Fete

The 80th annual Fourth of July picnic was held in Haley Park, next to the church in Marley. This annual picnic is sponsored by the Men's Brotherhood of the Church and has long been a tradition of the community. Folks came from far and near to talk about old times under the beautiful shade trees and to enjoy refreshments and activities.

For the program, under the direction of James Tilley and O. D. Ferguson, patriotic addresses were given by three local college students, Ron Ferguson who is attending Northern Ill. University; Betty Stellwagen of Illinois State Normal and Jane Griffin of Joliet Junior College. Alma Lauffer provided musical entertainment at the piano.

Races and contests were held for the children with Harwood Stellwagen in charge.

Among those who came from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sabin and family of Paulsboro, N.J.; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Storm of DeKalb; and Mr. and Mrs. Vince Barney of Oak Park.

If you take your truck for granted

...it's a good one!

A truck that doesn't call for a lot of attention, that just does its job every day, is a great asset. This is the thing most users tell us they like about Chevrolet trucks—their reliability. And this, of course, comes from quality. Sound engines, strong frames, double-wall construction, insulated cabs, separated bodies and cabs, tight tailgates... are some of the features that help Chevrolet trucks work longer and bring back more of your investment at trade-in.

If you wish you had a truck that cost you less thought and attention, put your money on quality. Make your next buy a dependable Chevrolet truck.

HOMER NEWS
By Elizabeth Anderson
The Women's Missionary Society will hold its annual picnic meeting at Homer Church on Thursday, July 26. Dinner will be at 12:30. Each member is asking to bring her own table-service and a dish to pass. Miss Pamela Gray of Joliet has been engaged by the 33-C school board to teach fourth grade in September. All other teachers are the same as last year except that Mrs. Ray Carlson will be teaching third grade instead of fourth as formerly.

Mrs. Edna Mergler, of here, and Mrs. Ethel Lynk of New Lenox twp. went to Peoria last Saturday where they attended the wedding of Stanton Korista, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dohmer Korista who reside on Maple Rd., New Lenox, and Miss Joyce Leah Swedle of Peoria.
The young people met at Bradley University where the groom graduated in June, and where he will continue working for his Master's degree this fall. He is Mrs. Lynk's grandson and Mrs. Mergler's grandnephew.
The ladies went with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Liberty of Maple Rd. who also attended the marriage ceremony. The Korista family went to Peoria on Friday to attend a rehearsal and dinner for the bridal couple.

Miss Colleen Murphy of Minneapolis, is the guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Rev. and Mrs. Stanley Cox, Last week Mr. and Mrs. Cox motored to Marion, Ohio, to visit her grandfather, Mr. Lasher, who has been hospitalized. He made friends here when he visited at the parsonage last winter.
Denise Champoux of Gougar Rd. is recuperating from a recent tonsilectomy.

Mrs. Harvey Ingarsoll, E. Seventh St., entertained the Susanna Circle of the Lockport Methodist Church last Tuesday evening at her home.

The Clover-belles 4-H club was recently entertained in the home of their leader, Mrs. Gus Termunde, on Hadley Rd. Talks and demonstrations were given by the members.

Get more
hot water, with a new

"family size"
Gas water heater

If your household has hot water shortage problems, chances are your present water heater is out of date, too small or slow on recovery.

Today's units are designed to keep pace with larger families and with modern appliances which consume large volumes of hot water. Increased burner capacities give you stepped-up recovery rates that replace hot water as fast as it is used—for laundry, kitchen and bath.

Only gas provides so much hot water, so fast—so economically—does it for 1/3 the operating cost of other kinds of hot water heaters.

So dependable, too. Modern gas water heaters are backed with extra-long guarantees of ten to fifteen years. And gas water heaters work for you even if your power should fail.

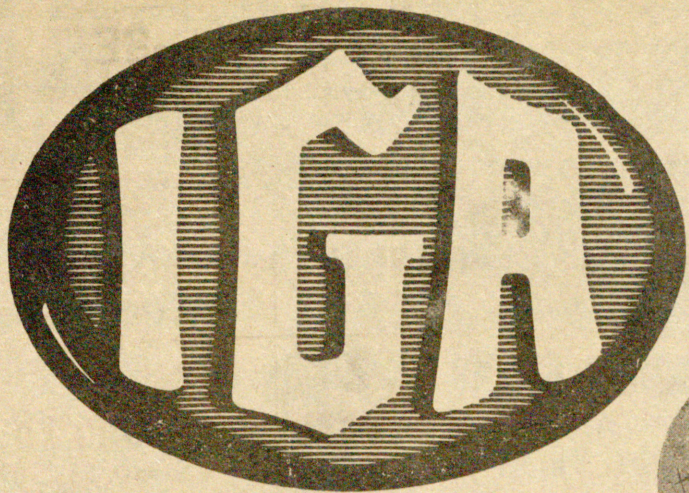

So stop at your plumber-dealer's or Northern Illinois Gas store. Select from many famous brands. You can even get models which you can adjust to provide varying amounts of hot water, according to changing requirements.

Get an attractive trade-in allowance now for your old water heater on a new "family size" gas water heater. Liberal budget terms, too.
